2. [REDACTED] was in to say hello. He said that everything was going along fine in [REDACTED] from a support point of view and that he had nothing special to request of us while he was at headquarters. Arranged to have lunch with him on Tuesday at 12:30 p.m.

3. Bob Macy, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned to complain that Frank Ecker had been unable to get our people to brief certain Bureau personnel on our estimate of Russian basic research in high energy electronic or proton generators. Upon checking into this I found that the material was not in finished form and had not been coordinated with anyone but arranged to have the Bureau people briefed on Monday at 2:00 p.m.

4. [REDACTED] who has just returned from his trip to Europe, telephoned to say that he had been asked some questions in Europe concerning annuities for widows and suggested that if we had not already covered this subject in the Support Bulletin we might like to do so.
